SPECIAL NOTICES.

Medical Mistakes .- It took the medical faculty about a thousand years to discover that the best way to cure disease was not to render the patient too weak to contend with it. Within the last twenty years, however, the whole sys-tem of medical practice has been changed for the better. In diseases or complaints caused by excessive heat, for instance, the doctors no longer recommend the reduction of the invalid's strength by prostrating medicines. The vast success which has attended the use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as a remedy for debility, has given even the most prejudiced members of the old school an insight into the only true and ra-tional theory of cure. Cantharides, calomel and overpowering doses of opium, are now among the obsolete nostrums of another age. The lan cet, once as much the legitimate weapon of the physician as the sword is of the soldier, is seldom lrawn from its case. The principle of life is no longer drained from the veins by the quart, and water-gruel for the strengthless invalid has ceased to be considered an appropriate diet.— Vigor is the motto of the rational members of the profession, and they understand, at last, the value of a sterling vegetable tonic. So, also, with the people at large; and without consulting medical men at all, they have adopted the Bitters as a household remedy, thereby economicing both each cut be able.

El Vino Catalina .- The announcement that has been so generally heralded throughout the country that an American company has again commenced importing this celebrated Wine Fonic is a matter of no small importance, and will be hailed with joy by all those seeking a pure and invigorating tonic; also, those who need a pure, pleasant and refreshing stimulant will find in the El Vino Catalina, or Brown's Catalina Wine Tonic, what they want. It will be remembered that importations were made in 1866 of this noted brand, but in consequence of the high duty then demanded by this government, the enterprise ceased, to the regret of thousands who had learned its value. It is the oldest tonic in the world, and doubtless the most invigorating, the purest and best, and if importation continues at the rates now started, it will take its place in every family in this as well as in the old countries. Its merits will make it a household article, and we hope that every one who has ever used any Bitters or common patent who has ever used any Bitters of common patent tonic, will at least try one bottle of the Catalina, and then decide for themselves whether they will use this Tonic, prepared from the pure juice of the Catalina grape, with Calisaya and the spices of Coylon, or a bitters made of com-mon whiskey and bitter field herbs. This is an invaluable preparation for weakness and debility; it relieves morning languor and gives fresh-ness and appetite, not followed by an unpleasant
